

WHAT LIFE IS REALLY LIKE
AT THE END OF THE RAINBOW

Life at the end of the Rainbow

Rainbow is a small farming community of five hundred existing on the edge of the Australian Desert.
It is best known for dust storms and beautiful sunsets.

PRODUCER AND DIRECTOR WAYNE COLES-JANESS

PRODUCED BY IPSO-FACTO PRODUCTIONS PRODUCED WITH THE ASSISTANCE OF THE AUSTRALIAN BROADCASTING CORPORATION.
DEVELOPED AND PRODUCED IN ASSOCIATION WITH THE AUSTRALIAN FILM COMMISSION

Copyright 2002 © Ips0-facto Productions and the Australian Film Commission

www.ipso-facto.com.au